

out that the candidates had been assured that the County Committee would begin work at once. Chairman Carey announced the following executive committee: Thomas Carey, Edward M. Lahiff, John J. Hayes, J. J. Conklin, William Loeffer, T. E. Ryan, James J. Gray, Michael Byrne, James A. Pugh, Michael McInerney, Frank W. Solon, John J. Brennan, W. H. Ehemann, Silas F. Leachman, Stanley Kunz, W. H. Lyman, Henry Stuckart, W. E. Dever, John Powers, James A. Quinn, Edward Kelly, Frank S. Ryan, John P. Tansey, E. J. Novak. The committee on primaries, contests and appeals is as follows: James A. Quinn, chairman; Pat White, P. J. Murray, William Rothman, James P. Bowers, Mat Ewart, M. J. Doherty, George McConnell, Joseph Strahan.

The Democrats will nominate Joseph E. Flanagan for City Clerk if he will accept the nomination.

Secretary Lahiff predicts success for the Democrats in Cook County.

Chairman Roy O. West of the Republican State Committee appointed the committees that are to have charge of the campaign. Mr. West heads the executive and the managing committees. The personnel of the various committees is as follows:

EXECUTIVE—Roy O. West, James Pense, Fred A. Busse, Charles P. Hitch, Homer J. Tice, W. Scott Cowen, O. F. Severson, William Grote, John J. Hanberg, James McKinney, Charles G. Eckhart, John H. Duncan, James Neville, Thomas J. Healy.

Committees on transportation and primary election law will be announced later.

Mayor Harrison says he expects success for Parker in Chicago and Illinois. His honor ought to try and impress his views upon Mr. "Gumshoe" Taggart.

Hon. Florus D. Meacham's re-election to the County Board of Review is assured. Mr. Meacham's renomination by the Republican county convention was due to the fact that in his party recognized a man who did credit to it in the past and who, through natural ability and integrity, was bound to do so in the future. Mr. Meacham has been a model public official. His every act since he has been elected a member of the Board of Review has been guided by a desire to do what was best for the taxpayer and the community. A leading business man, he was chosen by his party for the honorable and responsible office to which he seeks re-election, because as a property owner, a man engaged in business which demanded a large outlay of capital and a citizen who has shown himself capable of grasping the highest conception of good citizenship, he was pre-eminently fitted and equipped for the office.

Florus D. Meacham was elected to be a member of the Board of Review in November, 1908. Ability, integrity and devotion to the people's interests has shown in the highest degree.

Mr. Meacham has been a member of the Board of Review for six years, giving his time and best thought to the details of the work. Not only has he given satisfaction, but at no time and by no one has any criticism been made of his efficiency as a public official. His honesty and impartiality in this difficult work of making assessments have never been questioned.

Mr. Meacham is a West Sider, and it is only just that so populous and important a district as the West Side should be fairly represented and by one who has proved his ability as thoroughly as Mr. Meacham has done.

Mr. Meacham's long residence in Chicago, together with his fine business and war records, make him most eligible to the place of trust which he occupies.

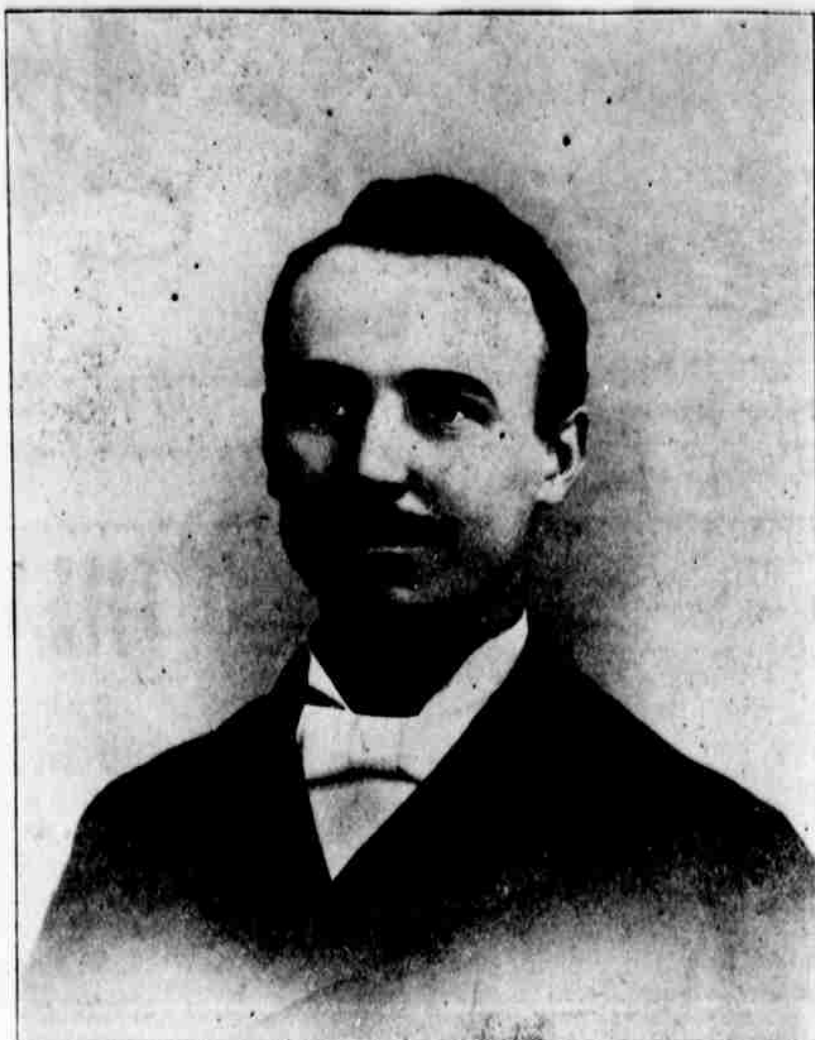

If George E. Cole thinks he knows more about how to run a Democratic campaign than Secretary Lahiff, of the County Central Committee, he is likely to be disillusioned in the immediate future.

Hon. Charles S. Deneen is setting the paces on fire. His work in Egypt is gaining him thousands of votes.

Hon. Arthur H. Chetlain, whose record as a judge of the Superior Court has gained for him the good will and confidence of the entire public, has been nominated for re-election by the Republican party of Cook County. He will be given the support of all who respect integrity and ability on the bench.

Judge Chetlain is a lawyer of great ability and has tried many cases involving profound questions of common law and equity. His decisions have been invariably upheld by the courts above.

Before his elevation to the bench Mr. Chetlain had distinguished himself as assistant corporation counsel under Mayor Washburne, and also in the handling of many cases of great importance in the courts of Cook

HON. JAMES REDDICK,
Chairman of the Republican County Central Committee.

County in the course of his private practice.

Mr. Chetlain was born in Galena, Ill., in 1850, and is a son of Brevet Major General A. L. Chetlain, U. S. Volunteers, a celebrated civil engineer and for many years one of the most prominent citizens of Chicago. He received his primary education in the public schools of Galena, attended the University of Wisconsin, where he received the degree of B. A. in 1871; attended the University Libre at Brussels, Belgium; graduating there and returning to Rockford, Ill., where he began the study of law, being admitted to the bar in 1873.

In 1874 Mr. Chetlain became a member of the law firm of Chetlain & Gregory, with offices in Chicago, and since 1873 has practiced law here continuously and with success.

Judge Chetlain is one of those careful, conscientious lawyers who have made for the bench of Cook County the splendid reputation which it enjoys.

His re-election to the Superior Court bench will come as a graceful recognition by the public, of faithful discharge of duty in high and responsible office.

A score of speakers are announced in the political meeting to be held at Brand's Hall, North Clark street, under the auspices of the German-American Democratic Club of the Twenty-first ward, Sept. 10. The speakers: Edward M. Lahiff, Ernest Hummel, George Trude, Max Stern, James A. Quinn, Herman Meyersburg, William Rothmann, F. W. Block, Fritz Roth, Zacharias Hoffheimer, Oscar F. Mayer, C. L. Hoefler, William Feller, F. C. Struckmeyer, William H. Ehemann, Quinn O'Brien, William E. Tegtmeier, Dr. A. C. Weil, William C. Crollus, Michael Zimmer, James J. Gray and Rudolph L. Schapf.

The bids for furnishing coal to the county institutions are now being tabulated. As soon as this work is done, the committee on public service will take up the offers, and award the contracts to the lowest bidders.

Thirty-two companies have made offers, so the task of selecting the lowest will be a long one. From a brief examination of the bids, Superintendent of Public Service McLaren expresses the opinion that they average five per cent less than those submitted last May.

O'Garra, King & Co., the concern which has had a county contract for years, did not put in a bid. Among the bidders are: The Universal Coal Company (Joseph Letter's coal company), D. D. Healy & Co., Baker Bros., Northwestern Fuel Company, and Standard Washed Coal Company.

National Committeeman Sullivan says that whatever may be done in the way of establishing headquarters here, the Prairie State will be well canvassed this fall.

Why should Hon. John P. Hopkins designate as "bank" the talk about putting himself in charge of a Western National Headquarters of the party? Could any more capable man have charge of affairs here?

Charles P. Hitch will prove one of the most useful members of the Republican campaign press committee. Mr. Hitch is a newspaper man himself and one of the best campaign managers in the party.

The voters of Chicago have a most important duty to perform in selecting members of the next State Legislature. The new city charter, which is full of possibilities for the future of Chicago, will be handled by that body, and the people of this city should send nobody down there but the very best available men.

The number of public schools now in Chicago is 290, the number of pupils

225,000, and they are in charge of an army of almost 4,000 teachers. This is now one of the finest school systems in the world and a credit to the city government.

Hon. James Reddick, the able and indefatigable chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, is conducting a most effective campaign. Mr. Reddick has an excellent record as a former public official and as a citizen of high standing, and his presence at the head of the Republican county campaign is certain to redound to its great advantage.

Once more, now that the schools have been reopened, the festive factory inspector is abroad in the land.

Nobody takes any stock in the yarns about a merger amendment to the Chicago City Railway ordinance.

That was interesting news from Vermont. Gumshoe campaign tactics don't seem to work very well down East, either.

Hon. Fred A. Busse would unite every wing of the Republican party in Chicago as a candidate for City Treasurer next spring.

Mr. Frederick Schultz has a fine record as a member of the West Park Board, and a first class citizen generally.

Hon. George S. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Seventh District, should be elected. Mr. Foster is an able lawyer, a first class citizen, and a man who would do honor to the district as its representative in Congress. He was, some years ago, elected to the City Council from the Twenty-seventh Ward, which he represented with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of his constituents.

Hon. Charles F. Gunther made a splendid record as a member of the City Council and in the office of City Treasurer. In both capacities he distinguished himself as an able and trustworthy public servant. Mr. Gunther would make an ideal mayor of Chicago.

Hon. Lyman E. Cooley distinguished as one of the foremost civil engineers in America, respected as a citizen and a former public official is a man who would do honor and justice to the people of Chicago in any office in their gift.

Hon. Benjamin M. Mitchell should and undoubtedly will be re-elected to the House of Representatives. He made a good record while a member of that body in the past.

Hon. James J. Gray is one of the best officials Cook County has ever had. He has rendered excellent service as a member of the County Board of Assessors, and his re-election to this office will be a fitting recognition of faithful service in public office.

Miles J. Devine is favored by some of the best and most popular Democratic leaders in Chicago for the party nomination for City Attorney.

Among the Democratic leaders who will work hardest and most faithfully for their party ticket, National, State and county, is Hon. John F. O'Malley, the popular North Side leader.

Hon. Martin B. Madden will be elected to Congress from the First District this fall. The reason why Mr. Madden den's friends have their minds made up that he will win is to be found in the fact that they have determined and are taking measures to put up the strongest fight ever made in the First Congressional District.

Dr. Brooks' faultless tooth powder is the best preservative of the teeth yet found.

Thomas D. Kilgus, the able lawyer and public spirited citizen, is a man whom the people of Chicago would gladly honor by their votes for any office in their gift.

Captain William P. Black is a lawyer and an orator who has ever been true to his ideals and to his friends, and his party principles.

Hon. George Louis Rogers will be elected to the Superior Court bench this fall. He was elected a year ago on the provisional ticket for the Circuit Court by a fine majority. His friends, however, will not allow any grass to grow under their feet from overconfidence.

Judge Philip Stein's record on the Superior Court bench is such as to entitle him to the support of every law-abiding citizen. Judge Stein's decisions have always been molded and based upon the spirit as well as the letter of the law. His re-election will be an honor to the bench, the bar and the public.

Hon. Joseph A. O'Donnell is a lawyer of great experience, a conscientious, upright citizen and a man in whose election the judiciary of Cook County will receive a valuable addition.

Hon. Fred H. Rowe has the good will of every Republican who has the interests of his party at heart and appreciates good party work accomplished through energy and tireless devotion to duty.

Hon. John F. Smulski has made one of the best city attorneys who ever served the city of Chicago in that capacity. His renomination by the Republicans next spring is assured, and his election will as surely follow.

One of the most popular and successful legal firms in Chicago is that of Edwin A. and Oscar D. Olson.

The George B. Swift Company, under the able management of former Mayor George B. Swift, is now engaged in a number of great structural works of vast importance and necessitating both brains and enterprise.

Charles Wesley Novak has no superior as a lawyer and an advocate.

Hon. Henry Sherman Boutell should be re-elected by an increased plurality next fall. He is one of the ablest men ever sent to Congress from the State of Illinois.

Mr. A. W. Schwane has the well-merited reputation of being one of Chicago's most reliable business men. Mr. Schwane is one of the most representative and popular German-Americans in this city. In politics he is a Democrat, but he has hosts of friends in all parties who admire and respect good citizenship.

Hon. John Richardson has earned during long and efficient service as a justice of the peace the esteem of the bar and the public. He is honest and fair in all his rulings and is besides a lawyer of first-class standing and education.

Bernard A. Eckhart is the most influential and valuable man the Republicans of Illinois could have for treasurer of their State campaign.

Harry Hildreth, Jr., the Democratic candidate for clerk of the Circuit Court, will be elected. He is one of the most popular young men who ever sought office in Cook County and will receive, in addition to the regular Democratic vote, the support of all who are interested in good government and in having able and reliable men in positions of trust and responsibility.

Mr. P. C. Haley has made a fine record as special counsel for the drainage board.

Hon. John F. O'Malley is a man who has always been loyal to his friends, and of whom they are justly proud. Mr. O'Malley has given good service to the State and to Chicago in high and responsible public office.

Congressman William F. Mahony deserves the gratitude of his constituents of the Eighth district and of the people of Illinois, to whom he has given loyal and faithful service.

Former Judge O. H. Horton enjoys the highest respect of bench and bar as a citizen and as a lawyer. His reputation as a legal advocate is second to none.

Mr. John J. Vanderbilt, the popular flour and feed merchant, would make a good City Clerk. He has been a lifelong Republican and has the respect and good will of the leaders of his party.

John E. Owens would make a first class Corporation Counsel, and is said by many leading Democrats to be one of the most available men for that position if the Democrats should achieve another victory in the next municipal election.

Mr. Charles J. Vopelka, will make a capable and worthy representative in Congress of the great Fifth Congressional District.

William Hale Thompson is the kind of man the public need in office. In the City Council and on the Board of County Commissioners, he has been always true to the people and the taxpayers.

Hon. James A. Hogan, the popular general manager of the Illinois Stone Company, has returned to Chicago from an interesting trip to New York, where he took a prominent part in the proceedings of the United Irish League.

If earnest and honest endeavor to end a disastrous strike, injurious alike to capital and labor, deserves thanks the gratitude of the people of Chicago is due to Mr. Edward Tilden, the popular capitalist and banker, for his work in this regard. Mr. Tilden has always been willing to give of his time and energies to the service of the public.

Thomas M. Hoynes will be elected to the Superior Court bench. He is one of the most popular men named on the Cook County Democratic ticket and will get the support of the people.

Hon. Thomas A. Smyth would fill any office in the gift of the people of Cook County competently and well. His career on the Drainage Board is creditable to himself and to the Democratic party.

Roy O. West is the right man in the right place as chairman of the Republican State Central Committee. He is up to date in his methods, level headed, and always a winner.

Inspector Hunt has proven himself throughout the trying ordeal of the stock yards strike to be a great, capable and thoroughly reliable police officer.

Hon. John P. McGorty will be successful in his race for the Legislature next fall. He gave the public faithful and valuable service in that office before and the people will show their appreciation by electing him to it once again.

The Chicago Telephone Company is one of the greatest and most useful public utilities. Under the able management of President Arthur D. Wheeler, and General Manager A. S. Hibbard, it gives the public the maximum of service at the minimum of cost.

Frederick W. Alwart is strongly backed for City Treasurer. He would ably discharge the duties of that or any other public office.

Mr. William McCoy is justly regarded as the beau ideal of hotel keepers. The genial landlord of McCoy's hotel counts his friends by the thousand in Chicago and throughout the country.

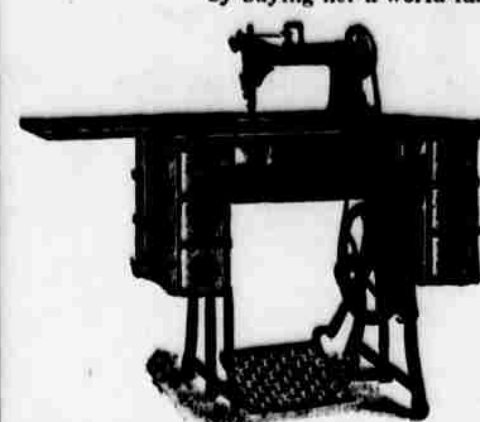

Oscar F. Mayer, who is running on the Democratic ticket for president of the County Board, is one of the best known business men in Chicago. Mr. Mayer has been for years engaged in the provision and supply business, and in all his dealings has been ever distinguished for fair and honorable methods. He enjoys the good will and respect of all who know him, and their name is legion.

Mr. Mayer is one of the most widely known and popular of our German-American citizens, and will get a great vote from that nationality irrespective of party or partisan considerations. If elected president of the County Board as now seems likely Mr. Mayer will devote his natural ability and business training of years, as well as absolute integrity to the duties of the office, and it is certain that under his administration, as president of the County Board, the affairs of the people of Cook County will not suffer.

Dr. Brooks' faultless tooth powder is the best preservative and beautifier of the teeth yet found.

Lightens Woman's Work

You can save her time and worry by buying her a world-famed

Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine

If she has a sewing machine now that runs hard, breaks thread and needles and is continually getting out of order, exchange it for one that never fails to serve you, and seldom needs repairs.

The Rotary Hook is one of the distinctive features that have made the Wheeler & Wilson the most perfect working machine in the world. It is operated on fit-tension ball bearings and its skilful adjustment enables it to stitch more perfectly and fully one-third faster than other sewing machines.

Over two million now in use.
